I find the field of labor a wide one. Our own people need indoctrinating, and others need the truth as it is in Christ. We should be as zealous in preaching the Gospel in communities occupied by other denominations, as elsewhere. The young especially should be taught, if we would insure our future success.

Respectfully submitted, J. A. MAY.

Made report of committee on Revision of Constitution special order for 1:30 o'clock P. M.

Adopted report on Temperance:

Your committee on Temperance reports:

That the intemperate use of ardent spirits is one of the most potent factors in the hands of the great adversary of man, in leading the young men of our country into the paths of immorality; we find further, that the use of ardent spirits often brings trouble into the church of the living God.

We deprecate the lethargy of our churches in trying to eradicate this pest (ardent spirits) from among us. Our profession declares to the world that we are uncompromising enemies to this grim monster; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we request that all ministers having charge of churches in the bounds of this Association preach at least one sermon to each church once a year, on the subject of temperance.

And be it resolved by this body, That she request each church to put forth all her energies and scriptural teachings to drive this foe from among us.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES P. SMITH, Ch'n.

Adjourned to 1:30 o'clock P. M.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

We, your committee on revision of Constitution and By-Laws of the Association, beg leave to report the result of our labors, which you will find in the accompanying draft and which we respectfully submit to your intelligent consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. HOLMES, Ch'n.

(See amended constitution, appendix "A.")

Report of committee on Deceased Ministers, adopted.

REPORT ON DECEASED MINISTERS.

Your committee reports that we feel thankful to God for his infinite mercy in sparing the lives of all ministers belonging to our body, during the past Associational year.

Respectfully submitted,

E. K. HEAD, Ch'n.

REPORT ON MISSIONS.

Your committee on Missions find, by examining the statistical report of the Southern Baptist Convention, that we have 287 missionaries at work under the direction of the Board, and that they have done a great work during the past year. They have supplied 1,114 churches, baptized 4,857 converts, and received by letter 2,639, making a total addition of 7,496 members. They have organized 431 Sabbath-schools, with 17,240 pupils. They have organized 306 churches, built sixty-four church houses, and have distributed 4,754,000 Sunday-school publications at a cost of $41,154.15, and for Home Mission work $89,177.32; for houses of worship built $54,668.00, and for Sabbath-school publication society $34,478, making a total of $178,953.32. We learn from good authority that there are now about 9,000 converts waiting baptism in Cuba.

We find that we have in the United States 2,732,570 Baptists, and they gave last year $7,876,474, and only $634,127 of this amount was given to Foreign Mission work.

We find that the Baptists of the United States furnished one ninth of the missionary money that was used last year, and one tenth of the missionaries; and the result was that God gave half the converts to the Baptist church. Our Association has been supplied this season for three months by Elder J. A. May, for which we have paid him $70.45, and we have sent off for Foreign Missions $11.35.

Now, brethren, we feel that our Association is able to pay more money for Foreign Missions, and that she is able to keep a good man in her limits for more than three months, and we feel that it is our duty to do these things, when we realize that God has so graciously blessed us in our efforts. We would earnestly request that each church make an earnest effort to do more the next year than they have in the past, and we feel assured that God will bless us.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. HENDRICKS.

Pleasant church letter was taken from the table, and on motion, the same was returned to the messengers of said church on the ground that said church had violated a resolution passed by the Association in 1887, by calling a pastor from a church considered out of order by this Association. The report on Sunday Schools was adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your committee on Sunday Schools are sorry to report that there are very few Sunday schools in our Association, for the reason that our denomination is not fully aroused upon this subject. We would urge upon our messengers the importance of Sunday schools, and request that each church make an effort, an earnest effort, to organize Sunday schools in all the churches, and report the same at the next Association. Since this is a practical church duty, let us not neglect such a moral and religious influence as may be brought to bear upon the youth of our land.

APPENDIX A.

CONSTITUTION OF THE WARRIOR RIVER ASSOCIATION.

1. This Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in the union, and also of all ordained ministers who are in good standing in their own churches; provided such churches are members of this Association, and shall be known as the Warrior River Baptist Association.
2. Each church shall send a letter to the Association by its messengers, giving the number baptized, received and dismissed by letter, excluded, restored or died during the Associational year, total membership in fellowship, time of monthly meeting, together with contributions for Minutes and other purposes.
3. This Association shall be considered merely an advisory council, claiming no authority over the rights and privileges of the individual churches, nor constituting itself an ecclesiastical court to sit in judgment on church difficulties. It is agreed, however, that this Association may appoint a committee of the body for the purpose of reconciling church differences, provided such interference is asked by such confused church, or a part of a church. And it is further agreed that this Association shall have the right to withdraw fellowship from any church that departs from the faith and order of the Gospel.
4. Each church shall be entitled to send three messengers to this Association, and one additional messenger for every twenty-five after the first fifty members; and should any church fail to represent herself, she shall state the reason for such failure in her next letter to the Association.
5. Any Baptist church may be admitted into this Association by sending a petitionary letter and messengers. If upon investigation she is found to be orthodox and orderly, the Moderator shall extend her messengers the right hand of fellowship.
6. This Association shall elect, annually, from the body a Moderator and Clerk. The Moderator shall preside over the deliberations, preserve order, and see that the rules of decorum are faithfully carried out by the members, decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the body, and give the casting vote when the Association is equally divided. The Clerk shall faithfully record all the proceedings of the body, and superintend the publication and distribution of the Minutes among the churches.
7. This Association may adopt a plan for raising funds by voluntary contributions to defray the expenses of the Association, for supplying destitute churches and settlements in her bounds with the preaching of the gospel, and for any other purpose which she may deem proper, leaving every church member free to contribute as he shall purpose in his heart. All funds raised thus shall be placed in the hands of the Treasurer, who shall be accountable for the same to the Association, and shall disburse it as the Association may direct.
8. This Association adopts the declaration of faith as published in Pendleton's Church Manual, and Mell's Parliamentary Practice Manual as its exponent of parliamentary law.
9. All questions shall be decided by a majority vote, except in case of an alteration of, or an amendment to, this Constitution.
10. This Association shall elect, annually, one of her ministers to preach the introductory sermon, and one to preach on the subject of missions.
11. The Minutes shall be read and approved by the body, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association adjourns.

12. This Constitution may be altered or amended by an affirmative vote of two thirds of the members present, provided the alteration or amendment has been proposed at a previous meeting of the Association.
